There is a "murderer" among us. You may wonder what is happening. Let me tell you!

If you get on the Murder Mystery Lunch train from London's Victoria Station, you will surely meet such an "experience". Passengers (乘客) take part in a detective game and find the "murderer" on their way to me to tie up my brother's hands with a rope which he took out from his pocket. I tied up his hands but I tied it in a special way. The man then tied my hands up and locked both of us in the kitchen.

Soon, he went upstairs to search the bedroom for valuables. I managed to teach my brother to untie the rope on his hands. He then untied me. I rushed to the telephone to call the police, but the line was dead. The doors were all locked from the outside and I did not have the keys to unlock them. Luckily, the robber (强盗) forgot to lock the kitchen window. My brother managed to get out of the house through the window and I told him to go to the neighbourhood police station and call for help. Of course, my brother brought the police to our house and the robber was caught.

- ( ) 57. Before opening the door, the writer's brother _____.
A. thought it was one of his friends      B. didn't ask who it was
C. knew it was a stranger      D. felt very frightened
- ( ) 58. Why did the writer tie up his brother's hands in a special way?
A. Because his brother could untie himself.      B. Because he had no choice but to do that.
C. Because he wanted to win the robber's trust.      D. Because he didn't like his younger brother.
- ( ) 59. Why couldn't the writer call the police at home?
A. Because there was no telephone there.      B. Because he was afraid of the robber.
C. Because he couldn't get through.      D. Because the line was too busy.
- ( ) 60. From the text, we can know that the writer was _____.
A. calm and smart      B. impolite and worried
C. well-behaved and energetic      D. warm-hearted and generous

D

He was hiding behind another tree but stepped out to meet me.

"Who are you?" I asked, staring at him.

"Ben Gunn," he answered, and his voice sounded rough and strange. His skin was burnt nearly black by the sun and his clothes were made from pieces of a ship's sail. Poor Ben Gunn," he went on. "Alone for three years."

"Were you shipwrecked (船遇难)?" I asked.

"No, my friend," he said. "Marooned."

I had heard the word before, and knew it meant a cruel (残忍的) punishment often used by pirates (海盗) leaving a man alone on some distant, empty island.

"Marooned for three years," he continued, "living on wild goats and fish. But I'm in a great need for real English food back home. You don't have a piece of cheese, do you? Many nights I've dreamed of cheese. "

He continued. "Well, tell me your name. "

"Jim," I told him.

"Well, Jim," he said, looking around and lowering his voice to a whisper, "I'm rich. " I was now sure the poor man was crazy, but he repeated his words. "Rich, I say! Now, Jim, that isn't Flint's ship, is it?"

I began to think that I had found a friend, and I answered him at once. "It's not Flint's ship any more. Flint is dead, but there are still some of Flint's men aboard, and that's bad news for us"

"A man with one leg?" he asked, fear in his voice.

"Silver?" I asked.

"Yes, Silver," he said, "that was his name. "

"He's the cook, and their leader, too. " And I told him the fight between Flint and the cook, and the danger we were now in.

"You're in trouble, Jim," he said when I'd finished. "Well, Ben Gunn will help you. Will your squire(绅士) be generous if I do, do you think? I don't want him to give me a job, but will he give me one thousand pounds out of money that's really mine?"

"I'm sure he will," I said.

(Adapted from Treasure Island)

( ) 61. What were Ben's clothes made of?

第二节 (共 5 小题, 每小题 1 分, 满分 5 分)

阅读下面短文, 从短文后的选项选出可以填入空白处的最佳选项。选项中有两项为多余选项。

(共 5 小题, 每小题 1 分, 满分 5 分)

Have you had a headache during a test? Have you ever been so worried about something that you have a headache or even can't sleep at night? 66 _____ Stress is what you feel when you are worried about something.

67 _____ You may feel angry, sad, scared, or afraid—all of which can give you a stomachache or a headache.

However, there are different kinds of stress. Some kinds of stress are good and others are bad.

Good stress might happen when you're called to answer questions in class or when you have to give a speech. 68 _____ For example, you may do a better job on your test if the stress pushes you to prepare better before the test.

69 _____ You may not feel well if your parents are fighting, if a family member is sick, if you're having problems at school, or if anything else makes you unhappy every day. That kind of stress isn't going to help you. And it can actually make you sick.

70. _____ Make sure you keep yourself in mind: sleep, exercise, leisure, and food. If you get enough sleep and eat properly, and if you exercise and leave time for fun, you'll probably feel less stressed.

- A. On the other hand, bad stress can happen if the stress lasts too long.
- B. If so, then you know what stress is.
- C. The best way to fight the stress is to have a balanced life.
- D. This worry in your mind can make your body feel bad.
- E. You may feel uncomfortable in your mind and body.
- F. This kind of stress can help you to get things better done.
- G. This will make you more nervous.

六、根据短文内容，用括号内所给词的正确时态或形式填空，使短文完整。（共10小题，每题1分，满分10分）

When teacher Margret Atkins, 39, went to ride her bike to school last Friday, she was shocked to discover it 81 (steal). When our reporter spoke to her, she told him that she'd been angry when she realized her bike was gone. It was quite an old bike her grandpa had given her years ago. She said it was 82 (valuable) gift she'd ever received.

So what did she do? She decided 83 (write) a note to the thief and put it where the bike had 84 (take) away. To her surprise, she 85 (find) the thief had returned the bike, together with a written apology (道歉) later that day. "What I did was 86 (complete) wrong. I'm really sorry I took your bike. Hope you can accept 87 (I) apology!"

Mrs. Atkins told reporters she was not going to call the police because she was no longer angry. She was just thankful that she could go to school on her bike again. She added that she'd 88 (probable) write another passage to the thief. "I want to thank him for 89 (return) the bike and tell him I've forgiven (原谅) him," she explained. "People sometimes make 90 (mistake), but the important thing is that they own up to (承认) what they've done," she said.

作文

Daniel is a member of my team called Sunshine. He is a Junior Three student and he is 15 years old. He is smart and hard-working. It's also generous of him to share things with us. He often helps us when we are in trouble.

In his free time, he not only likes reading detective stories, travelling but also likes watching programmes about sports. But since this term, he has devoted most of time to study and has made great progress.

He is good at sports, especially running. He came first in the race of school sports meeting this year. He is such a brave young boy that he successfully helped the police solve the case of kidnapping. Because of this, he was presented with "Award for Bravery".

But recently, he has got some problems. He is suffering from the coming exams. He feels so stressed that he can't sleep well at night. I think that he worries too much and should arrange his time well. I hope he thinks my advice is worth taking.
