What is a Chinatown? Is it a town in China? Of course not! Chinatown is a part of a town area with a large number of Chinese residents(居民), usually outside of Greater China. Chinatowns are throughout the world, including those in East Asia (东亚), Southeast Asia, North America, South America, Australasia, and Europe (欧洲). The biggest one is in New York. It is a good place to go.

Shopping

Shopping in the Chinatown is fun. You can find lots of things there. Most of them are made in China. Mott Street is the best place to shop because things there are not very expensive.

Eating

The Chinatown has more than 200 restaurants. You can enjoy traditional Chinese food there. New Silver Palace Restaurant is one of the best Chinese restaurants.

Living

Living in the Chinatown is comfortable. You can find hospitals, banks, libraries and supermarkets there. In some schools, students must study Chinese. Many overseas(海外) Chinese send their children to these schools. They want their children to learn more about China and its culture(文化).

51. Chinatown is a living area _____.

A. in China

B. in a foreign (外国的) country

C. in the countryside

D. in shopping mall

52. New York in the United States has _____ Chinatown in the world.

- A. live in a foreign country B. know something about Chinatown
C. read books in Chinese language D. learn more about China and its culture

C

Many people take trains for their trips in China, because the train is fast and cheap. But there are many problems when people take trains. It's not easy to take trains when it is a festival. Lots of people hope someone can solve(解决) the problem.

Then, the CRH trains(和谐号列车) come out. The first CRH train from Beijing to Tianjin runs in August, 2008. There are the letters "CRH" on the head of the train. CRH 1 and CRH 2 can go up to 200 km/h, and CRH 3 can run 300 km/h. Taking CRH trains is more expensive than taking a traditional train, but cheaper than taking a plane. Some people think the CRH trains and their workers are good, and they enjoy the trips by CRH train.

China will start to make a CRH train, 350 kilometres an hour from Beijing to Shanghai. It can save people more time than taking the traditional trains.

Can CRH trains solve all the problems? "Of course not. There is still a long way to go," about 85% of the people answer.

56. Many people like to go travelling by train because_____.

- A. the train is cheap B. the train is safe

九、任务型阅读 (5分)

How much do you know about Beijing opera? Do you listen to it? Do you go to see it? Anyway, in the near future, you may learn it at school.

To make Chinese culture popular among young people, this year, about 200 schools around China will make Beijing opera a lesson.

Most students think it's a good idea. Han Lang, a 14-year-old Beijinger, especially welcomes it. "We don't need to be very good at Beijing opera," said Han. "But it's a good idea to know something about a traditional art."

"Now so many foreigners come to China every year," said Han. "If we cannot tell foreign friends anything about Beijing opera, it will be a shame."

But students like Ji Xuan are not as enthusiastic (热心的) as Han. The 14-year-old Shanxi girl said the idea is not bad. She'd like to study a local art of Shanxi.

Some students, however, don't care what kind of opera they learn. They only care about learning. "Learning Beijing opera won't be an easy job," said Ding Peiqi, a 14-year-old Shanghai girl. "I hope teachers can teach it in a fun and exciting way. If not, we won't become interested in it."

91. Why will about 200 schools around China make Beijing opera a lesson?

92. What do most of the students think of the change?

93. What kind of art does Ji Xuan want to study?

94. What does Ding Peiqi think of learning Beijing opera?

95. If teachers can't teach Beijing opera in a right way, how will the students feel about it?
