Our world is increasingly becoming a global village. We teenagers are eager to get familiar with international peers. To meet our desire, a photo exhibition called "International teenager's life" will be held at 3 p.m. next Sunday in our school hall. The exhibition will feature an impressive collection of photographs capturing the lives of young people from different corners of the world. Through this visual journey, we will get a glimpse into their daily routines, traditions and aspirations. Each photo tells a unique story, allowing us to appreciate the beauty and differences between cultures.

We eagerly hope for your participation in the exciting event.
