Possible version:

A book I'd like to share with you

Books are the ladder of human progress. I would like to share my favourite book The Adventures of Tom Sawyer with you.

The story is filled with adventures and love. It is written by Mark Twain. Tom, the hero of the story, is lively and clever. He and his best friend run away to an island. After they adventure on the island, they come back home safely. What has impressed me most is that Tom can overcome fear bravely.

From Tom, I have learned bravery and kindness. The book is so interesting that it is well worth reading.
