2. （10 分） I waited 14 years to do something that I should have done in my first year of teaching: shadow a student for a day.

This is the first year I am working in a school but not teaching my own classes. Being the High School Learning Coach, a new position for the school this year, my job is to work with teachers and administrators （管理人员） to improve students' learning outcomes.

As part of getting my feet wet, my principal suggested I "be" a student for a day: I was to complete all the work of a 10th - grade student. My task was to do everything the student was supposed to do: If there were notes on the board, I copied them as fast as I could into my notebook; if there was a chemistry experiment, I did it with my host student; if there was a test, I took it.

I could not believe how dog - tired I was after the day, because I literally sat down the whole day, except for walking to and from classes. We forget as teachers, because we are on our feet a lot - - - in front of the board,
