Most English people have three names: the first name, the middle name and the family name. Their family name comes last. For example, my full name is Jim Allan Green. Green is my family name.

People don ' t use their middle names very much. So " John Henry Brown " is usually called(被称作) " John Brown ". People never use Mr, Mrs or Miss before their first names. So you can say John Brown, or Mr Brown; but you should never say Mr John.

Sometimes people ask me about my name. " Why do your parents call you Jim?" they ask. The answer is that they don ' t call me Jim. They call me James. James is the name of my grandfather. In England, people usually call me Jim for short. That ' s because it is shorter and easier than James.
