Hello, everyone! My name is Judy. I live in a flat with my mother and father. The flat is on the tenth floor in a tall building which has 24 floors in all. I enjoy living here.

My father works in the city centre and our flat is far away from there. He has to spend about one hour going to work by underground every day. He also drives his car, but not on workdays because of the heavy traffic and the high price of gas. He only uses his car at weekends to take us to the countryside or the beach.

Our flat has three bedrooms. One bedroom is for my parents, and one is for me. We use the third room as a study. There is a living room, a kitchen and two bathrooms in our flat. We don't have a garden, but we have a small and lovely balcony. There are some plants there. In summer we often sit on the balcony because it's very hot inside the flat. We are happy to live in the flat.

49. Judy's father drives his car _____.
 A. every day B. only on workdays C. at weekends D. once a week

50. Which of the following is TRUE?
- A. The flat is far away from Judy's parents' workplace.
 - B. There are some plants in the garden.
 - C. In summer we often sit on the balcony because it's very hot outside the flat.
 - D. There are seven rooms in the flat.
51. What is the passage mainly about?
- A. Judy lives in the city centre.
 - B. Judy lives in a flat with her family.
 - C. Judy's father works in the city.
 - D. Judy has a bedroom of her own.

C

Dan ran in through the front door and straight up the stairs to his bedroom. Quickly he started up his computer and went to findmymobile.com. He knew about this website because his dad once lost his phone. He found it again with it.

Dan put in his phone number and waited. A minute later a map came up. There was a flashing red dot (闪烁的红点) on the map in the countryside near Steeple Compton. The red dot was moving slowly along a road.

"That's my phone," thought Dan. "The thieves aren't far away."

The map on the website wasn't very good so Dan ran downstairs and found a better map in the living room. He took it upstairs and opened it. Then he looked again at the map on the computer.

The red dot wasn't moving any more. And it wasn't on a road.

Dan looked at his parents' map, then at the map on the computer, then back at his parents' map. "I've got you!" he thought. His phone was about three kilometres outside the village. It was at a place called Holt Farm.

"Come on, Dylan!" said Dan. "We're going to get those dogs back. Let's go."

(from Dan and the Missing Dogs)

52. What does the red dot stand for? _____.
- A. The moving car
 - B. The thieves
 - C. The lost phone
 - D. The countryside
53. What can you infer (推测) from the passage?
- A. Dan lost his phone in the countryside near Steeple Compton.
 - B. Dan's mobile phone was stolen by the mobile phone thieves.
 - C. Dan put his phone on the thieves' car to find them.
 - D. The map of the website is so clear that Dan found his mobile phone quickly.
54. Which is the CORRECT order of the four sentences?
- ① Dan found a flashing red dot moving slowly on the map.
 - ② Dan ran into his home and started up the computer.
 - ③ Dan found the red dot stopped at a place called Holt Farm.
 - ④ Dan went to findmymobile.com.
- A. ①②③④
 - B. ③④①②
 - C. ②③①④
 - D. ②④①③
55. What would most probably (最有可能) happen next?
- A. Dan and Dylan called the police and wait.
 - B. Dan and Dylan lost the position of the thieves because they are too far away.

C. The thieves sold Dan's phone out and made money.

D. Dan and Dylan followed the thieves' car and found the missing dogs.
